

Hal Cannon & Teresa Jordan Present

OUTBACK: SONGS AND STORIES FROM AN UNSUNG WEST

Hal Cannon and Teresa Jordan have spent their lives roaming the back roads of the American West and giving voice to the surprising tales they found there. Join them in concert for a magical evening of story and song.

Musician Hal Cannon, founder of Utah's famous Deseret String Band and the National Cowboy Poetry Gathering, has played the traditional music of the American West in places as far flung as the Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan, the At Chabysh Horse Festival in Kyrgyzstan, and the National Folk Festival in Washington D.C. More recently, his own songs have earned him acclaim as one of the most original voices coming out of the New West.

Hal Cannon ... debuted his first all-original self-titled album, Hal Cannon ... for an enchanting set of history and mystery, jubilant celebration and soulful melancholy. —Jeri Debrowski, Western Culture News & Reviews

Author Teresa Jordan's ranch memoir, Riding the White Horse Home, has become a Western classic, but on stage she throws the page away and speaks from the heart, tapping into a story-telling tradition as old as Homer. Her tales about everything from running away from home as a child in Wyoming to learning how to train a goldfish as an adult in Butte, Montana have regaled audiences from the National Cowboy Poetry Gathering to the Conference on World Affairs.

"Spellbinding.... The emotional scope of Jordan's prose is as vast as the ranch she grew up on – succoring one moment, shattering the next." —Seattle Times
